DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the reflector in Claim 2 must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Katahira (US 6,667,811).

Katahira discloses an image scanning module, comprising: a first unit for retrieving a first image (Col 3 Lines 6-16); a second unit for generating a second image by focusing said first image; and a third unit for generating an electric signal responsive to said second image; wherein said first unit, said second unit, and said third unit are modules discrete from each other (Col 3 Lines 61- Col 4 Line 4).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Katahira (US 6,667,811) in view of Applicant's admitted prior art (APA).

Katahira discloses the image-scanning module as discussed in Claim 1.

Katahira does not disclose expressly wherein the first unit comprises: a carriage; a light source, being positioned inside said carriage, for generating a light signal; a cover disposed above said carriage, said cover including a hole, said light signal passing through said hole and reflecting from an original to generate said first image; at least a reflector, being positioned inside said carriage, for receiving and reflecting said first image; and a mounting device for stationing said reflector.

APA discloses a carriage 11; a light source 13, being positioned inside said carriage, for generating a light signal; a cover 12 disposed above said carriage, said cover including a hole, said light signal passing through said hole and reflecting from an original to generate said first image; at least a reflector (not shown), being positioned inside said carriage, for receiving and reflecting said first image; and a mounting device (not shown) for stationing said reflector (Fig 1).

Katahira & APA are combinable because they are from the same field of endeavor.

At the time of the invention, it would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to combine APA with Katahira.

The suggestion/motivation for doing so would have been to create different scanning resolutions.

Therefore, it would have been obvious to combine Katahira with APA to obtain the invention as specified in claim 2.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claims 3-5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
